

Roald Dahl Exhibition

On Tuesday, a group of Year 8 students visited the interactive Roald Dahl exhibition at the Southbank Centre. They entered a world of pure imagination and discovered how Roald Dahl found inspiration in the most unlikely of places. The students were courteous, engaged and enthusiastic throughout. L Shergold was so immersed in the experience that he insisted I duck to protect myself from an imaginary bomb scare! They were a pleasure to be with.

A Parks – "I learnt that Roald Dahl was dyslexic and he had to write on yellow paper to help him."

K Oleksiak – "I learnt that Roald Dahl was not good at any subjects at school but he was good at sports."

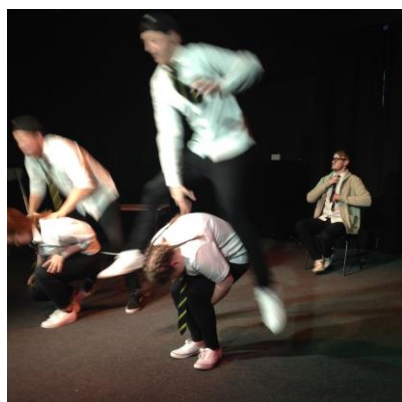

A Walker – "I learnt that his first book was Charlie and the Chocolate Factory."

Year 12 Drama

Massive congratulations to the Y12 Drama students for their amazing monologues as well as their performance of 'Teachers' by John Godber.

Year 8 Design and Technology

The boys in year 8 are learning how to solder and practising before this before working on their PCB for their art movement inspired speaker.

AJ and Dawson decided to make their own dodgy specs!
