Protection of Children/Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

All posts involving direct contact with children are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. However, amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013 & 2020) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected'. These are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Ministry of Justice website.

Shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide details of all unspent convictions and those that would not be filtered, prior to the date of the interview. You may be asked for further information about your criminal history during the recruitment process. If your application is successful, this self-disclosure information will be checked against information from the Disclosure & Barring Service before your appointment is confirmed. Having a criminal record will not necessarily prevent you from taking up appointment; it will depend on the nature of the offences and their relevance to the post you are applying for. However, should you NOT declare an offence that is subsequently revealed, e.g. through the DBS check, then this may place your appointment in jeopardy.

Do you have any unspent conditional cautions or convictions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974? (Yes/No)?

Do you have any adult cautions (simple or conditional) or spent convictions that are not protected as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (Amendment) (England and Wales) Order 2020? (Yes/No)?

Are you either on the Children's Barred List (previously List 99 and PoCA list), ever been disqualified from working with children or been subject to any sanctions imposed by a regulatory body? Yes / No

It is a criminal offence for barred individuals to seek or undertake work with children.

If you answer yes to any of the above please provide details in a sealed envelope marked Confidential

Superannuation Scheme

Do you contribute to the Local Government Pension Scheme?

If you contribute to another scheme, please provide details
