

STUDENT FINANCE EXPLAINED

A quick note

- I do not work for the UK Government!
- This presentation is not designed to advocate, endorse or promote the current system.
- I simply want to make sure everyone who is thinking about university (plus their parents or guardians) has a basic understanding of how student finance works.

Students face loans chaos

Thousands without funding at the start of new academic year

More than 10,000 students are expected to be without funding at the start of the new academic year, according to a report by the Student Finance Society. The report says that the government's cuts to university funding have led to a crisis in student finance, with many students unable to get their loans or bursaries. The report also says that the government's cuts have led to a loss of jobs in the education sector, which will further exacerbate the problem.

2. Living Costs

How much (max.) can universities charge in tuition fees?

- A. £4,000
- B. £6,000
- C. £9,250
- D. £12,500

1. Tuition Fees

- Universities can now charge between £6,000 and £9,250 a year for their courses.
- The Teaching Excellence Framework allows universities to increase their Tuition Fees in line with inflation.
- Students will not have to pay any tuition fees upfront!
- Both full and part-time students can have their fees covered by a tuition fee loan (providing it's their first degree)
- You do not see this money!

1. Tuition Fees

- University has a cost but...
- Getting a degree brings the chance of long-term financial benefits including:
  - Increased employability
  - Higher earning potential
  - Access to professions
- Higher Education is about more than just financial gain:
  - New opportunities and experiences
  - Develop new skills (independence)
  - The chance to study a subject you love
  - Socially and culturally enlightening
  - Contribute towards the country's economy
  - You might even have fun!

2. Living Costs

- What do students spend their money on?

2. Living Costs – Maintenance Loan

- All full time students can apply for a loan to cover living costs.
- Paid at the start of every term direct into student's bank account.
- This money has to last!
- Rates apply according to household income (means tested), where in the UK you study and if you move out of home.
- As a result, everyone will receive a different amount.
- If there is a change in your circumstances...

2. Living Costs – Maintenance Loan

Repayment of Loans

- You will only start repaying your student loan:
  - When you are earning over £21,000 (frozen until 2021).
  - The April after you graduate/leave university.
- Repayments are always dependent on your income and are deducted automatically from your pay through the tax system.
- Monthly repayments amounts are not affected by the amount borrowed.
- Having a student loan will not affect your credit rating.
- After 30 years, any outstanding repayments will be written off!

If you were earning £25,000 a year, how much of your student loan would you repay per month?

A. £0

B. £30

C. £50

D. £100

Repayment of Loans - Examples

- Repayment rate is 9% of earnings above £21,000

£21,500: £4.00 per month

£25,000: £30.00 per month

£30,000: £67.50 per month

£40,000: £142.50 per month

- Interest rate varies but never more than rate of inflation + 3%

Extra Sources of Funding

Special Support Grants

Access to Learning Fund

Parents' Learning Allowance

Disabled Student Allowance

Childcare Grant

Travel Grant

University Bursaries

Adults Dependent Fund

University Scholarships

University Hardship Funds

Part Time Work

How to apply

- You must reapply every academic year!
- You can usually apply after submitting your UCAS application (although these are not linked!)
- Student Finance England - www.gov.uk/student-finance
- Apply by 30th May to guarantee your funding is ready for the start of your course
- For specific university bursaries, you'll need to apply directly to the respective university and deadlines will vary.

Summary

- Nothing is paid upfront!
- Tuition fees are paid on your behalf by the UK Government.
- Lots of support is available to help with living costs (Maintenance Loan). The level of support will depend on your individual circumstances.
- Repayments are manageable and are only paid when you are earning over £21,000 (wiped after 30 years).
- The cost of university can be daunting, but do not let this be the reason you don't go!
